3-D Scansion!!!™

At xylostyle, we believe in the chromatic as well as in the iambic power of poetry. That's why we've developed 3-D Scansion!!!, which launches versification into a completely different dimension. And now you can enjoy this literary breakthrough right there in the privacy of your own home or office.

It's this simple: First, print this page onto heavy paper stock and cut out the colored squares from the viewer template below. Next, get some red and blue cellophane. Measure and trim squares of each to fit the cutouts. Paste or tape them onto the viewer template, using red for your left eye and blue for your right. Cut out the template, hold it between your thumb and forefinger, and you're ready to go!

To truly experience the amazing wonders of 3-D Scansion!!!, we suggest that you close the windows, draw the curtains, and dim the lights.

proudly offering a gaze
of shimmering stealth
appearing with the silence
of supposition
and assumption

affecting superiority
of indifference
erasing remnants
of once-feigned interest
with apparent
self-satisfaction

disconcertingly atonal,
these thoughts
distort
and collapse
into amusement.
